Calling new artists

Here at Lovesongs247, we want to be the website to help you launch your career and have recently introduced a new platform for 'new music'.

We know not all good music is by big artists and we encourage new artists or bands who want some airplay to get in touch with us, and send us their mp3s to contact@lovesongs247.com

We then have a listen and if we like the music then we could be playing you on Lovesongs247.

What are we playing?

Here at Lovesongs247, we pride ourselves on planning a wide cross-section of music that spans many genres and generations.

Whether it is music from artists that occupy current chart positions or artists from various decades that are instantly recognizable just from the first few beats of their songs, Lovesongs247 embraces the diversity of new and existing artists while also playing the music we all love.

This month you'll be hearing lots of exciting artists, such as:

Blossoms

A five piece English indie pop band from Stockport, Blossoms was formed in 2013. With a psychedelic, indie pop/rock vibe, their title song "Charlemagne" is the title track from their four-track, long-awaited debut album "Blossoms" and with a UK autumn tour following on from the one hundred and twenty gigs they have already done this year, it's no surprise that Blossoms are in the top five of the BBCs Sound of New Music List for 2016.

Michael Kiwanuka

Born in May 1987 in Muswell Hill in North London, Michael Kiwanuka is the son of Ugandan parents who escaped the Edie Amin regime. With a folk and folk rock style, his musical influences range from Jimi Hendrix to Bill Withers and James Gadson, with whom he has played alongside and with his album "Home Again" reaching number four in the UK in 2012 and his album "Love and Hate" reaching number one in the UK in 2016, he has supported Adele on her Adele Live Tour 2011 and just this summer performed at the British Summertime Festival in Hyde Park on the same day as Don Henley and Carole King.

Ward Thomas

A British modern country music duo comprising of 22yr old twin sister, Catherine and Lizzy Ward-Thomas, they have been referred to as "Britain's first country stars" and alongside The Shires they are making modern country music with a British twist for a market that has previously been dominated by American singers and bands. Their first album "From Where We Stand" was released in July 2014, peaking at number 1 on the UK Country Chart and winning the Album of the Year at the British Country Music Awards, selling over 25,000 copies.

With their new album "Cartwheels" that has just been released this month reaching Number 1 in the UK Albums Chart and making Ward Thomas the first UK Country Act to top the charts, a 16-date UK tour is planned.

Lovesongs247.com broadcasts 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

We play music from every decade, so you'll be sure to find the music you love.

It's the station to listen to if you love songs.
