Merchandise now available for purchase

This month we launched our new range of merchandise that is available for purchase for all our listeners.

Our T-shirts are branded with the words "DO YOU LOVE SONGS?" and are priced at £9.99 with free postage and packing in the UK.

The t-shirts are unisex and come in sizes Medium, Large and Extra Large and can be purchased through our website.

In addition, with every purchase of a Lovesongs247 T-shirt, you will also receive a Lovesongs247 pen.

Who is the model for our Lovesongs247 T-shirts?

Our model is a young French lady called Stephanie who was spotted by one of the eagle-eyed Lovesongs247 team members in the restaurant where she works.

Having been snapped up by us she is now the face of the Lovesongs247 t-shirts.

She can also be heard on Lovesongs247, giving her French accent and beautiful voice as one of the presenters on the online station.

Calling new artists

Here at Lovesongs247, we want to be the website to help you launch your career and have recently introduced a new platform for 'new music'.

We're all about great music and we know that great music is not always by signed artists.

We encourage new artists or bands who want some airplay to get in touch with us, and send us their mp3s to contact@lovesongs247.com

We then have a listen and if we like the music then we could be playing you on Lovesongs247.

We play new tracks several times a week, depending on how great the demand is – and how many new tracks we receive!

Do You Love Songs?

Here at Lovesongs247, we pride ourselves on playing a wide cross-section of music that spans many genres and generations.

Whether it is music from artists that occupy current chart positions or artists from various decades that are instantly recognizable just from the first few beats of their songs, Lovesongs247 embraces the diversity of new and existing artists whilst also playing the music we all love.

From classical music through to jazz, popular music, folk and rock, there is something for everybody who loves songs and loves to listen to good music throughout their day.
